

Climate Change and Drinking Water

Challenges and opportunities for private wells and small water systems in the coastal zone

Part II: Addressing the Challenges

Thursday, February 22nd from 12:00-1:00pm

Register for the Zoom Workshop Here

Building upon Part I. Understanding the Issues, this workshop will focus on Addressing the Challenges. Speakers will share funding and technical assistance available for planning and solutions for private well owners and small water systems in the coastal zone.

- | | |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 12:00-12:05 pm | Introduction |
| 12:05-12:20 pm | Community Water Stories - What actions has your community taken to address local drinking water challenges? <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Rick Lattimer, Town Manager, North Haven Island (5-7 mins)● Jon Ziegra, 5 Rivers Regional Water Council (Brunswick, Topsham, Bath, Wiscasset, Bowdoinham, Richmond, Damariscotta) (5-7 mins) |
| 12:20-12:50 pm | Funding and Technical Assistance for Planning and Solutions <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Alex Pugh, Senior Environmental Hydrogeologist, Maine Drinking Water Program (10 mins)● Laurie Stevens, Regional Director (ME, NH & VT), RCAP Solutions, Inc. (10 mins)● Carol White, Consulting Hydrogeologist (5-7 mins) |
| 12:50-1:00 pm | Questions, Reflection, and Discussion with attendees and speakers |

Speakers/hosts will stay on until 1:15 to continue the discussion as needed

Hosted by

